Friday Oct. 27.

Dear Miss Weston,

Mr. Prentiss has just been in here, blaming himself for having forgotten to say to you yesterday that he was all but out of copy; they are now at work on the very last paragraphs that you have sent them. He thought I had better write & let you know at once, and ask you to send more copy as soon as may be. —

W. Phillips has just been in, having walked down here; and he feels himself to be improving, he says.

I wish I could think of any news, but I can't, unless you will be much interested to hear that one of the water-pipes on the Common burst yesterday afternoon, tearing up the ground & flooding a part of the Common. The water was shut too suddenly off from the fountain.

I am truly Yours

Sam'l. May Jr.
